Pensacola, FL R&B artist Raven Salve' is encouraging the music and entertainment industry, artists, actors, activists, community leaders, business owners, educational institutions, local, state and national governments to promote domestic violence awareness. Domestic violence awareness focuses on neither the victim or the offender but empowers the "bystander" to help shift attitudes and beliefs that perpetuate abuse.

Raven Salve' is a rising star who is spreading awareness about domestic violence and rape through her music and message. Raven's sophomore album "Metamorphosis The Transformation," was released on July 13th, 2019 and has brought the artist's moderate success. The album has helped spread domestic violence and rape awareness through songs like "Victim No More," and "Cry For America."
